Parole and Probation Officers Discover Pipe During Offender Home Visit

Reno officers arrest probationer and her boyfriend after pipe bomb, semi-automatic fire arms, taser and ammunition are found at residence

Reno, Nevada~On April 24th, 2006, Nevada Department of Public Safety Parole and Probation Officers Jorge Pierrott and Shane Lees made an unannounced home visit to 46-year old probationer Colleen Allison and her 47-year old boyfriend Robert Gutierrez at 755 Kuenzli #137 in Reno. During the authorized search, Officers Pierrott and Lees discovered drug paraphernalia and what appeared to be a small white pipe bomb. They immediately contacted the Washoe County Consolidated Bomb Squad who were immediately deployed and removed a small grenade/pipe bomb and other firearms from the residence. (Do we know if the bomb was detonated?)

Probationer Allison is currently supervised by DPS Parole and Probation for a felony embezzlement conviction. She was booked into the Washoe County Jail with a no-bail hold on probation violations and for an ex-felon in possession of a firearm. Her court date is pending.

Gutierrez was also booked into the Washoe County Jail for felony possession of an explosive or incendiary device in a private or public area, possession of a controlled substance and misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia. He is not supervised by the Nevada DPS Division of Parole and Probation. His bail is set at $10,300.00 with a court date also pending.

For more information on this arrest, contact Sergeant Natalie Wood at 775-__need #__.

The Nevada Parole and Probation, a Division of the Department of Public Safety, is responsible for providing monitoring and supervision to over 18,000 offenders statewide. The Division also conducts pre-sentence investigations for Nevada District Courts on all felony and gross misdemeanor convictions.
